Mr. Marvin Kühne,
born on April 28, 2000, in Ostfildern

joined our company on November 16, 2023, in the Strategic Project Lead MBOS department as an intern.

The scope of Mr. Kühne's responsibilities included the following tasks:

- Participation in the strategic project management of the new MB.OS operating system.
- Coordination of E/E and software development schedules as well as support for the maturity processes, including data preparation and maintenance (maturity management).
- Assisting in the development of software content management through the definition and optimization of processes, as well as the synchronization of cooperation models with adjacent departments.
- Support in the execution and moderation of the Driving and Charging Roundtables (interdisciplinary exchange platform), including the preparation of agendas and meeting minutes as well as task tracking (committee management).
- Contribution to the introduction of a software content management system, including support in process definition and visualization as well as coordination between various departments.
- Conducting actual-state analyses, identifying and implementing optimized workflows, and reporting to ensure optimal alignment and management of goal achievement for MB.OS.
- Actively driving project-specific topics in collaboration with adjacent departments (Development, Design, Controlling, Sales, Procurement).

Mr. Kühne's work results were always of the highest quality, even in the most challenging cases and under time pressure. He was always extremely resilient, even in the most difficult situations, and acted with composure and thoughtfulness. He consistently applied his excellent expertise with outstanding success. After a very short time, Mr. Kühne worked entirely independently and was always reliable. He performed his tasks with great dedication and pursued the set goals with considerable success. Mr. Kühne worked at all times to our utmost satisfaction in every respect.

His conduct toward supervisors and colleagues was always exemplary.
